

This LAW enacted has been the greatest thing to happen in the state of Indiana. I wholeheartedly support the continuation of this law as it is now and would welcome additional restrictions including Jail time for the CEO's of repeat offending companies and /or banning their possession and use of phones for a period of time if found guilty of violating this act. I also believe non profits should be held accountable for companies that make phone solicitations on their behalf. Thank you, Peter L. Wingler